PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Namaste, Sat-Shri-Akal and welcome Life Members, Delegates and honoured guests.

It gives me much pleasure to present the Annual Report of the New Zealand Central Indian Association.

This has been another active year for our members throughout New Zealand. The coups in Fiji came as a major shock to us all. I felt very sad for the Indians in Fiji, who know no other home to be subjected to this unjust, harsh, cruel treatment. Democracy was struck a hard blow by the military in Fiji, but the tragedy of it all is that the rest of the world just looked on!

Once again India suffered a drought, causing much distress to the local people in many areas.

The floods in Gisborne and the surrounding districts devastated farmlands and caused havoc and untold damage. The Government and the people throughout New Zealand rallied together to offer assistance in many different ways.

One of the most enlightened appointments by this Government was the 'Royal Commission on Social Policy'. This Commission's brief is to define and structure a 'Fair and Just Society' with equal opportunity for us all regardless of race, creed, religion and sex. Our Association made verbal and written submissions to this Commission. My thanks to Thakor Parbhu who made verbal submissions in Auckland and especially to Ganges Singh who co-ordinated the written Submission on our behalf. Ganges Singh was also invited to give verbal submissions again so our efforts have been appreciated by the Commission. Access Radio had a summer broadcast, which gave many people the chance to hear their own language and music on Radio. We hope to make 'Access Radio' a permanent feature of our Air Waves in the near future.

Some of us were privileged to hear Dr Nissim Ezekehiel a foremost Indian Scholar of English Literature and world renowned poet tell the New Zealand Jewish Copuncil that there was 'No discrimination whatsoever' against the Jewish Community in India. Dr Nissim a learned, cultured gentleman is Professor of English at Bombay University. Comments like these make me really proud to be an Indian.

The decision of the International Rugby Board to allow individual players to tour South Africa I find appalling. 'Apartheid' is a scourge which must be decimated and this soft attitude taken by the International Rugby Board fills me with great misgivings.

Recently Auckland hosted three world class events, all in one weekend. The World Crosscountry running championships – which was decisively won by the Kenyans; the 'Round the Bays' which is the largest event of this type in the world, and the launching of 'New Zealand'. I can't imagine such a large or more excited crowd again until we win the Americas Cup. Heartiest congratulations to Ramesh Patel for being awarded the Queens Service Medal for his contribution to New Zealand hockey. Certainly a very worthy recipient, I am very pleased to see his service recognised. In recent times we seem to hear a great deal about Mono Culture, Bi-Culture, and Multi-Culture, which I feel does not apply to us. Indians with our inbred tolerance and natural graciousness are 'Intercultural'. We are very happy to share our food customs and religion. We move among cultures. With this in mind and a deep conscious pride in our Indian identity, I see a bright future for us in New Zealand.

My sincere thanks to my Vice President Santokh Bhullar, whose calm professional manner has been an inspiration to me, to my very able Secretary Jagdish Natali for his helpful advice and constant care. To Maganbhai Ranchhod for his painstaking work and attention to detail in compiling the New Zealand telephone directory. To the Country Section for hosting my first Annual Conference and a Committee meeting. To Taranaki for the last Conference; Pukekohe for this Conference, to Wellington and Auckland for Committee meetings and most of all to all the ladies who have worked so hard for these functions.

It is to them we owe our success.

To all my Committee members and delegates a special appreciation for your support and courtesy shown the chair during my term of office. As I retire from this position I pledge my service to the New Zealand Central Indian Association, and to any cause that may better life for Indians in New Zealand.

Shanti Patel
PRESIDENT

YOUTH GROUP REPORT

This year the Youth Conference was represented by delegates from Auckland, Country Section and Pukekohe. To establish acquaintance all delegates gave brief introductions of themselves as some were new to their own groups and to the conference. Firstly it was decided that a new chairperson and secretary be elected. Nominations were put forward and elected for those positions were:

Suresh Wallabh – Chairperson

Hansa Daya – Secretary

During the conference delegates expressed a common opinion for enthusiasm towards their groups being quite minimal. Due to this, some of the areas had been in recess and events to report were minimal. To improve the situation it was agreed that after the conference delegates report back to their respective regions and restore interest. Publicity through local newsletters, personal invitations to community members to attend meetings and definite aims being discussed by members would help the cause considerably.

After the close of the Youth Conference, Chairperson Suresh Wallabh from Pukekohe addressed delegates of the main conference. Renewed confidence in re-establishing inactive youth groups and encouraging greater participation in all regions was expressed. However mention was also made to delegates from those centres who had failed to send their youth delegates to the conference. Their attendance would certainly have made the conference more successful, as a wider range of ideas could have been exchanged. Hence providing greater encouragement towards the progress of centres who made efforts to attend.

Suresh Wallabh lastly thanked the host centre Pukekohe, for the kind hospitality given on behalf of all the youth delegates.

Mr Ganges Singh presented the Youth Group Cup to the Auckland delegates in recognition for the efforts, and contributions made by all members in the Auckland region.

OBITUARY RAMA UNKA

Ramabhai Unka first arrived in New Zealand in 1929 at ten years of age. He spent his first years in the Taranaki district, attending school in Stratford for a year and then working in a fruit ship in Wanganui.

In 1939 with the pending World War II conflict, he returned to India, only to find himself facing greater challenges in the Indian Revolution which began in 1942. During his six year stay in the mother country, he helped in the activities to free India. He travelled many miles each day on foot to help in underground activities, dodging the police as much as possible. However, he was finally arrested and questioned about all the people with whom he was associated. On refusal to assist the police in their inquiries, he along with others, was handcuffed and beaten unconscious. After spending an interim period in a concentration jail he was then sent to prison for a year. Throughout this period, not only Ramabhai, but his family, suffered a great deal of hardship. His part in the fight for independence for India was recognised in 1979 when he was formally presented with a Certificate for his efforts by the New Zealand High Commission.

After arriving back in New Zealand in 1948, Ramabhai engaged himself in the fruit business in Auckland for a short period. However, he was still unsettled, and moved to Rotorua where he took an interest in the activities of the Bay of Plenty Indian Association.

In 1953, Ramabhai and his family shifted to Te Aroha in the Waikato region. He was very involved in the interest of the Waikato Indian Association and helped greatly in initiating and establishing the Waikato Indian Sports Club to which he was elected the first President.

In 1964 Ramabhai was elected President to the Waikato Indian Association. A post which he held until 1977 giving wholeheartedly his time and effort. Subsequently he again held the office of President until his ill health in August 1986 prevented him from continuing with his duties.

Ramabhai returned to India in March 1985, to open the Acharya Manibhai Smarak, which was built on land donated by Ramabhai to the village people of Karadi and surrounding areas. This is just one of the examples of Ramabhai's generosity.

Ramabhai was deeply involved in religious activities and was a keen supporter of all religious and cultural activities within the Association. He always gave his time and effort willingly for the benefit of the community and also had the ability to inspire confidence.

Everyone who was associated with Ramabhai and knew him would be saddened by his loss.

He became a life member of the New Zealand Indian Central Association in 1982 and attended 15 Conferences. Ramabhai will be sadly missed by all of us.
